Teaching, Learning and Teacher Education PhD/EdD Courses

Typical Course Rotation*

Summer A
- EDUC 661: Teacher Leadership in Teacher Education (3)
- EDUC 693: Topics (3)
- EDUC 692: Workshop or other elective (3)

Fall A
- EDUC 602: Teacher Education Pedagogy (3)
- LEAD 603: Introduction to Data Analysis for Organizational Leaders (3)
- EDUC 610: Equity, Access and Learning Community (3)

Spring A
- EDUC 663: Instruction and Supervision in Teacher Education (3)
- LEAD 609: Quantitative Methods for Analyzing and Transforming Organizations (3)
- EDUC 693: Topics (3)

Summer B
- EDUC 604: Contexts of Teaching and Learning in Teacher Education (3)
- Elective (3)
- EDUC 690: Dissertation Seminar (3)

Fall B
- EDUC 643: Curriculum Theory Seminar (3)
- LEAD 605: Qualitative Research in Education (3)
- Elective (3)

Spring B
- EDUC 652: Teacher Education and Social Justice (3)
- LEAD 607: Analyzing Qualitative Data (3)
- Comprehensive Exam/Advancement to Candidacy

Summer C
- EDUC 699: Dissertation—begin taking hours (18 credits minimum)

Degree Requirements: The doctoral program requires 72 credit hours of coursework (not including the dissertation) comprised of 48 credit hours in core, research, electives, and 24 credit hours in a support area.

Please refer to the information at: https://grad.unm.edu/resources/start-to-finish-unm/phd/phd-roadmap.html

*Subject to change